The Heart of Jesus

Today's Message

A Sacred Glimpse

Today's Main Scripture

John 17

Main Point

As we begin our new series in John 17, we are entering holy ground. This passage gives us an extraordinary opportunity to glimpse the heart of Jesus as He prays to His Father, and for His disciples and the church.

- The Moment of Jesus' Prayer

- The Message of Jesus' Prayer

Notes:

Self Reflection:

1. How often do you reflect on the love of Christ for His people and for you? Take time to consider the key points of Jesus' prayer and ask God to give you fresh eyes to see this extraordinary prayer in all its beauty and sublimity.
2. As you think back over the life and ministry of Jesus, what were some of the important occasions that moved Him to pray?
3. In today's message, Pastor Dave introduced a host of topics to be gleaned and studied from Jesus' prayer. Which ones might you consider for further study and meditation?
4. Take time this week to read and pray through John 17. In what ways might you make this prayer personal to your life and circumstances? Take some notes on the requests Jesus makes and consider some of the immediate applications to your own prayer life.
